(c) No.

(d) No. But the old Mysore Government had submitted a reply to the Questionnaire issued by the Official Language Commission. A copy thereof is placed on the table of the House. (Placed in the Legislature Library, No. 20/L.A. 1958).

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—Has the State Government fixed any target date for accepting Hindi as the official language?

Sri H. S. RUDRAPPA.—No, Sir. In fact, Government has no authority; only the Hon'ble House has the authority; therefore, Government cannot fix any date as the target date.
